for the Special DVD Production*

The release of this DVD is in celebration of the Silver Jubilee of the East-West School of Dance and the 25th Anniversary of our production of the Ramayana on Saturday, July 29, 2006. This is the fulfillment of the love and vision of Shri Brahmananda Sarasvati.

In the beginning of 2006 Pandit Satya Narayana Charka produced in India the soundtrack and has completed the new musical score for the DVD of the Ramayana. The dance drama will be staged and filmed at Ananda Ashram in July and will be followed by the DVD release.

Your support is essential to make this project a success. Estimated costs for the production are $25,000.. This is a perfect opportunity for everyone who wishes to contribute to the commemoration of this event. Help promote the Indian culture through the Ramayana.

Please make your check payable to Ananda Ashram and specify "Ramayana DVD Project."

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

*Major Donors will receive
